DOTUN IS KING; GIRLS HURDLERS, SPRINTERS SHINE

Pick a meet, any meet, and if you think it was a big one, Madison's Dotun Ogundeji won. State championships? Section championships? Mt. SAC? Arcadia? He won all of them, sometimes in dramatic fashion, en route to moving to No. 4 on the all-time list at 65-feet, 5 ½-inches. That was the mark the UCLA signee posted at both Mt. SAC and capturing the state championships.

Finishing second in the state meet provides both a look back and a peek ahead.

La Costa Canyon's Steven Fahy was forced to do all of the dirty work early as no one wanted to set the pace in the 3,200, so the Stanford-bound senior did just that and then allowed only one runner to pass him en route to a silver medal. Earlier he posted the third-best 3200 in section history at 8:53.95.

The other second place was oh, so close to a gold medal as Cathedral Catholic junior Hannah Labrie-Smith lowered the section 300-hurdle record for the third time, and second time in two days, to 41.67 seconds. The previous best was 42.26 by Sweetwater's Gail Devers—pretty fair company.

Right behind Labrie-Smith was her sophomore teammate Dani Johnson who shaved two seconds off her 300-hurdle best at 42.13, also under the old record.

But it was in the short hurdles that Johnson turned heads as she twice dipped under 14 seconds, only to have a little-too-friendly wind wipe out what would have been a section record. The 13.89 in the state prelims and 13.98 in the finals are the only two sub-14 second times in section history under any conditions.

Both Labrie-Smith and Johnson made the yearly list in the 100-meter dash but Mission Hills junior Suzie Acolatse dominated both the century and 200 as she lowered her bests to 11.59 and 23.97 at the section finals. Eight of the top 10 runners from 2013 return in both hurdle events.

Acolatse went on to finish third in the state meet 100 and is the only non-senior returning.

If you're looking for someone who is moving up the all-time list in leaps and bounds, watch Mt. Miguel's Laulauga Tausaga. Although, she is only a sophomore, she soared to No. 6 in the shot put when she hit 44-4 ¾ in the section finals. Proving big-meet ability second only to Ogundeji, Tausaga also improved more than 10 feet to capture the section discus title at 127-11.

Of course, there are lots of potential surprises next season as well as the graduation of distance running stalwarts like Fahy, Tal Braude and Emma Abrahamson will leave a void that others are eager to try to fill.

Thanks, Thanks, Thanks

These lists would not be possible without the help of track and field supporters like Don Jones, Rick Smith, Buzz Thom, George Green and dozens of others. Rather than mention everyone, let's just say this is a labor of love by a lot of people who still find high school track the most exciting of all sports.
